San Francisco Public Library sponsors programs at the Main Library and branches that support our activities, collections and service goals. All Library programs are free to the public. Many lectures, readings and performances are done on a volunteer basis; we have a small budget for honoraria, provided through the generosity of the Friends of the San Francisco Public Library.

We will contact you if and when we might be able to accommodate your program idea. Proposals are kept on file for possible future use. The Main Library has an auditorium seating 235, and community meeting room also appropriate for programming.

Branch librarians select their own programming; if your program is appropriate for the branches and if you have specified an interest in branch programs we will let the branch librarians know about your program idea.

Children's programming is handled by the Office of Children's Services; call 415-557-4273 if you are offering ideas for children's programming.

Publicity provided by the Library for our programs includes a calendar listing in At the Public Library and a flyer or poster for distribution to the branches.
